COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

Present Selectman / Assessor Bradley Barker has reconsidered and has taken out papers for another three year term. We now have 10 who have requested nomination papers for selectman and assessor. One more is interested in the selectman's position only.

The Planning Board will meet on Thursday night to formulate plans for the public hearing on Shoreland Zoning which must be held prior to Town Meeting. They will also prepare themselves to present resolutions for Flood Plain Insurance and Low Cost Housing.

Our appropriations requested from taxation to operate the town are approximately $1,000 less than last year. We had been told, unless there is a change made in the present legislature, we can expect a reduction of $34,000 in our school assessment. This would mean a $3.00 per $1,000 value reduction in taxes. Within our local requests we anticipated an increase in the County tax of over 100%.

MAINE'S ENERGY FUTURE TO BE TOPIC OF MONKS' TALK SUNDAY EVENING

The Jan. 28 issue of the weekly paper "Maine Times" contains several articles on energy-related matters including mention of some of the Monks' proposals.

SAD 44 Directors to Submit Building Plan to State Board

The board of directors of S. A. D. 44, meeting at Telstar Regional High School on Monday evening of this week, voted to make application to the State Board of Education for approval of a building plan as contained in the report of the Ad Hoc Committee for Educational Planning—S. A. D. 44.

The plan as submitted to the State Board, would abandon, for instructional purposes, the Ethel Bisbee and R. C. Foster Schools. The plans would provide for construction of a new school in the present Crescent Park School enabling an enrollment of from 350 to 400 students at that location, and an addition to the Andover School. All of these facilities would be for kindergarten through grade six.

These proposals in greater specificity, are contained in the Ad Hoc Committee Report distributed to S. A. D. 44 householders about two weeks ago. In total, an estimated cost of $3,260,000 is attached to this proposal. The proposal will be submitted to the State Board by March 1. No action by that panel is expected until July. The local directors' action in no way commits the district to a building program. Any project of that magnitude must be approved by district voters.

Action on other recommendations in the Ad Hoc Report was deferred until future meetings of the board.

In other action the board voted to seek approval of the State Board of Education for lease-purchase of the former Bennett's Garage (shoe factory) property for use as a vehicle maintenance garage. Permission is sought so as to permit action by the voters of S. A. D. 44 on the plan.

The board voted to authorize use of the Telstar Auditorium by the Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce on Sunday evening, Feb. 16. There will be a band concert as part of the Chamber's "Back Home Again" winter carnival activities.

John Learned, a Telstar student, spoke to the board with regard to yearbook advisors. Following an executive session later in the meeting, the directors deferred action on the matter until Monday, Feb. 10.

Board members absent Monday evening were Leon Akers, James Bodwell, Andover; Margaret J. Tibbetts, Clarence Remington, Bethel; Arnold Jordan, Greenwood; Edith J. Fleet, Margaret Wight, Newry.

There will be a special meeting of the board at Telstar Regional High School next Monday evening, Feb. 10, at 7:30. The budget for fiscal year 1976 will be discussed.

Ownership Change Announced for Main Street Firm

The sale of Rolfe's Apparel Shop on Main Street was announced this week. The business, which was owned and operated for several years by Mrs. Ruby Rolfe of West Bethel has been sold to Mrs. Ruth D. Grover, who assumed management on Monday, Feb. 3.

Mrs. Rolfe has been in business in Bethel for 20 years, having first opened a family shoe and sportswear store, The Shoe Rack, in 1955 on Upper Main Street, in quarters that are now part of Clukey's Pharmacy. In March of 1965 it moved to a location in the former American Legion Building. During the next few years, the store expanded to include other wearing apparel. In 1966 the Shop was sold to Charles Penney and Robert Parent of Rumford, but Mrs. Rolfe continued as manager until 1968 when the business was terminated and the Rolfe's opened Rolfe's Apparel Shop in the same location. In May, 1969 the store was moved to its present quarters, next door to the Casco Bank.

Mrs. Grover, whose husband owns and operates the Bethel Spa Restaurant and Motel, stated that present plans are for the business to continue under the same name and to offer the same line of quality ladies apparel.

TELSTAR MUSIC DEPT. HAS TWO ACTIVITIES THIS WEEK

During the week of Telstar's Winter Carnival, the Music Department will be busy sponsoring two different musical activities.

Then, Thursday, Feb. 13, the music department will present its annual Talent Show. This year we're going outside the music department to find talent, and believe me, we've found some! It should be an evening full of music and fun. That's Thursday, Feb. 13, at 7:30 p. m. in the Telstar Auditorium—No admission.

Anyone interested in assisting in this capacity should contact Al Barth immediately. It was announced that Cub Scouts will take part in the Bethel Winter Carnival's Snow Sculpture Contest and it is expected that there will be a sculpture entered from each of the five Dens and perhaps the Webelos.

The February Pack Meeting will be held on Feb. 25 at the Telstar High School cafeteria. The theme will be the blue and gold banquet and Cubs and their families will be seated according to Dens. It will be a pot luck supper, with a nominal charge per family to offset the cost of the trimmings. More details will be announced in the next Cub Scout News column. The Pack Meeting was adjourned with each Den partaking in a living circle ceremony.

From Congress

— Bill Cohen

During the past week, President Ford unveiled his promised plan to spare New England some of the weight of an added tariff on imported oil. The program would call for oil imported into New England to be taxed at the rate of $1.60 per barrel, as opposed to $3 in other regions that are less dependent on expensive foreign imports.

The President's concern for New England's special energy situation which is characterized by energy costs that average 25 percent higher than those in any other region, is most welcome. Unfortunately, however, even Mr. Ford's new program would have harsh repercussions for our region. And, like its predecessor, it simply would not achieve the desired end of substantially reducing energy consumption in the area.

Proponents of an increased import duty obviously believe that an added tax would force consumption cutbacks. What they fail to recognize is that most New England consumers have already reduced their consumption by the maximum feasible amount—an average of about 20 percent during the past year alone. Thus, no matter how high prices go, most people in Maine and New England cannot cut back any further on their fuel consumption—not, at least, if they are going to stay warm. The only effects of an added import duty would be that inflation would increase, the poor and the elderly would sink deeper into poverty, and the middle class would see its standard of living still further reduced.

Like President Ford, I realize that this country must make every effort to reduce our consumption of foreign oil. But I am also convinced that we should focus our conservation efforts on segments of the economy that still have some flexibility to cut back.

One way to do this would be to strengthen the existing mandatory allocation program and the use of import quotas. Under a stronger allocation program, the Federal Energy Administration would simply apportion oil fairly among the States. This would guarantee a fair supply to consumers in every region, but would avoid a burdensome price increase on low-income consumers.

The States would then have primary responsibility to allocate oil and gasoline among various consuming uses, including home heating, transportation, industry and recreation.

I would also favor strong measures that directly attack the wasting of energy. Perhaps the most shameful fact to emerge from our national energy debate is that our society wastes at least one-third of the energy it consumes. Coincidentally, this figure approximates our degree of dependence on foreign imports—the foreign imports that have quadrupled in price during the last year or so.

The possibilities of saving energy are almost endless. For example, a University of California study estimates that reducing the average automobile to 2,000 pounds and eliminating various other inefficiencies could almost double gasoline mileage. Unless the auto manufacturers make adjustments in the very near future, I intend to support a stiff horsepower tax to force the needed changes.

Our effort to pare fat from our energy budget need not stop with the automobile. Experts tell us that many homes in the United States are virtual "heat sieves." To help stop the waste of home-heating oil, I have proposed a system of tax credits to encourage people to purchase insulation and make other energy-saving home improvements.

Significant energy savings are also possible in industry through more efficient production processes and greater use of recycled materials. Additionally, utility rate structures could be redesigned to reward individual efforts to reduce energy consumption in the household. If an individual insists on having a house full of energy-consuming gadgets, I see no reason why his electrical bill should not reflect his extravagances.

I offer these suggestions not as a comprehensive program, but as example of ways in which we might seek to discourage excessive energy consumption—fair ways, which would reduce our national energy consumption, but which would not fall too heavily on those who have already cut their consumption to the minimum. I'd welcome any additional ideas that you may have in this area.

4. Portable heater too close to stove.
5. Curtains or clothing too near stove.
6. Grease spills on stove and in oven.

5,950 SOUP LABELS HELP BUY NEEDED SCHOOL EQUIPMENT

5,950 Campbell Soup labels were mailed in Jan. 13, 1975. The labels will enable Crescent Park and Ethel Bisbee Schools to obtain cassette tapes, a headphone, two tetherball sets and utility and soccer balls. Although the goal was short by 400 labels, the results were very pleasing. Delivery is expected in a couple of months.

This is the second year the Campbell Soup Company has made this offer. It is expected to be made again next year. So, keep saving the labels and send them in to the school or to Mrs. Caroline V. Gould, chairman, Bethel. The labels are recycled.

Many thanks to the Telstar Educators Association (who pay the postage), Miss Mary Newcomb (coordinator at Crescent Park School), the teachers, friends of education and especially the children for their effort and enthusiasm. Special thanks to Dave Olson and to all the friends from near and far who mailed in labels.

UNEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE SINCE DEC. 22

Special Unemployment Assistance for workers who previously were not provided State or Federal Unemployment benefits, has been available in Maine since December 22, 1974. This includes State and local government employees, domestic workers and farm workers. Emilien A. Levesque, Commissioner of the Maine Department of Manpower Affairs, has announced that a great many individuals have filed for these benefits. He further stated, that there may be many more individuals entitled to these benefits who have not yet applied.

Unemployed individuals who have earned $600 or more in the last 52-week period, and are not receiving unemployment insurance benefits, are requested to contact the nearest local office of the Employment Security Commission to determine entitlement. Mr. Levesque pointed out that individuals with earnings from self-employment cannot qualify for Special Unemployment Assistance Benefits.

TAXPAYERS CAN DESIGNATE TO PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN FUND

Taxpayers preparing their 1974 federal income tax returns can again take part in the 1976 Presidential Election campaign fund by checking a box on the front of their Form 1040 or 1040A, the Internal Revenue Service states.

John E. O'Donnell, Acting District Director of Internal Revenue for Maine, said that more than 11 million of the approximately 81 million returns filed last year (about 13.6% of the total) contained a Campaign Fund designation for 1973. Another 7% of the returns had a retroactive designation for 1972.

The total amount designated on 1973 returns was about $26-million, Mr. O'Donnell said. With approximately $4-million designated the year before by taxpayers, the Campaign fund now totals about $30-million.

Under legislation enacted by Congress in 1971, every taxpayer with a tax liability of $1 or more may designate $1 of his tax each year to the 1976 Campaign Fund. All money thus earmarked goes into a general fund to be distributed among all eligible Presidential candidates.

On a joint return, a husband and wife with an income liability of $2 or more may designate $1 to the fund, for a total of $2, Mr. O'Donnell said. If a husband wishes to earmark $1 and his wife does not, or vice versa, "Yes" and "No" boxes are provided for each. Taxpayers filing individually who do not wish to participate in the Campaign Fund may check the "No" box provided on the front of Forms 1040 and 1040A.

Mr. O'Donnell said that individual taxpayers may still designate $1 of their 1973 taxes if they have not yet done so. Taxpayers filing a joint return may designate a total of $2, or either spouse may designate $1 to the fund from the taxes paid in 1973. Taxpayers can designate for 1973 by filing a Form 1040X no later than Dec. 31, 1975.

Ample supplies of the Form 1040X are available at most local banks and post offices, according to Mr. O'Donnell. Taxpayers can also call their local IRS office toll free at 1-800-452-8750 to have a Form 1040X sent to them, or to request a free copy of IRS Publication 545, "Voluntary Tax Methods to Help Finance Political Campaigns."

Since participation in the Campaign Fund by a taxpayer neither increases his tax or reduces any refund due, Mr. O'Donnell said, the taxpayer filing for a refund should not send cash or check to pay for the designation.

Read 1 Corinthians 15:51-58
O death, where is thy sting? (1 Corinthians 15:55)

One day a child and his father were riding in their automobile when a honeybee flew in through the window. The child had gone into convulsions when stung before. The next sting might result in the child's death.

He became hysterical because he knew the present danger. His father said don't worry son, I'll take care of it. He brought the car to a halt at the side of the road, and caught the honeybee in his hand. The child relaxed momentarily but again became frantic when the father opened his hand and released the honeybee which began to fly about in the car.

The father said, "Son, you don't need to be afraid," turning his palm toward the lad. "See, the barb of the stinger is imbedded here in my palm. I have taken the sting out of that insect, and it can't harm you."

Is not this what Christ has done for us? By his death and resurrection, He has taken the sting out of death!

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thanks for what Your Son has done for us through his death and resurrection. Praise be His name, forever. Amen.

Thought For The Day
Why fear death? Through Christ it has lost its power.

30 Seconds WITH THE NAZARENE

Rev. Barbara Huse, Pastor
Bethel Church of the Nazarene

February is the month when we think about the affairs of the heart. It is the time of hearts and flowers. You know what we mean, "Roses are red and violets are blue; Sugar is sweet and high-priced too!" There is much talk about heart trouble and many families know what this can mean. When we think of the heart we usually associate the word with the organ within our body giving us life moment by moment. Science and medicine has accomplished so very much with pacemakers, medication, and even heart transplants. Miracles are accomplished and for this we are thankful.

We use the word in many different ways. "Have a heart, let us get to the heart of the matter, to love with all the heart, and you can think of many more." In Christ tion circles we speak of the Lord Jesus dwelling in our hearts. As the little child asked one day, "How does Jesus get into our hearts?"

I do not know but I know he does! This means more than the heart beating within us, it is the very central part, the core, the center of our very being, the inner life. Oh yes, we all need a heart transplant. Jesus does just that for all of us if we but ask Him. He will give us a new heart. God will perform the spiritual surgery necessary to remove the heart of stone, the heart of rebellion and sin and give us a new heart filled with the love of God! Oh yes, do remember your Valentine. Also please remember these affairs of the heart, your heart? "Is your heart right with God?"

"A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh." —Ezekiel 36:26.

MUNDT-ALLEN UNIT AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY

One of the busiest, community-oriented organizations in Bethel is the Auxiliary of the Mundt-Allen American Legion Post. The ladies of the Auxiliary, in anticipation of a larger membership and even more active role in Bethel life are reviewing their many and varied projects during the past year.

Activities prior to Memorial Day included a poppy poster contest for grade school children, the honoring of a primary school youngster as Miss Poppy and the sale of veteran made poppies. The members also participated in and helped with the planning of the Memorial Day parade and program.

On Mother's Day, Gold Star Mothers were remembered and in June, the Unit sponsored a delegate to Girls State. Booths at Molyckett Day and Waterford Fair, along with the serving of dinners for several organizations such as the Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce, Western Maine Management Association and the Senior Citizens are included in the year's activities.

At Halloween, safety reminders for adults were written for publication and again this year the Auxiliary serves as sponsors for the local Girl Scout Troop. Several members from the Mundt-Allen Unit attended the Legion Auxiliary State Convention in Sanford, where awards were received for the Unit history and scrapbook. Throughout the year money was donated to many service organizations, such as Care Project Hope and The Pride Training School, and as usual the veterans at Togus Hospital were not forgotten, especially at Christmas time.

Always with the welfare of the community in mind, the Legion Auxiliary has been busy seeking new ways to make life a little happier for everyone. New members are always welcome, so if you are eligible and would like to join, please contact Jeri Brooks or any Auxiliary officer or member. Eligibility requirements are: one must be (1) a mother, wife, sister or daughter of a member of the American Legion Post; (2) a mother, wife, sister or daughter of a man or woman who died while serving in the U. S. armed forces during World War I or II, the Korean or Vietnam Wars; (3) a mother, wife, sister or daughter of a veteran of one of the above named wars who has died since serving or (4) a woman veteran of any of these wars.

Friday's Alpine events opened under excellent snow conditions at Mt. Abram and the Rebels Barry Carver skied the 35-gate Giant Slalom from the top of the Middle X Trail in 51.7 seconds to capture first place. Teammate Tom Stecher was second with Mark Ouellette of Jay High third.

Friday afternoon the competitors took two runs of slalom on separate courses with Telstar's Carver again setting the pace with two blistering runs of 29.3 and 28.3 seconds for a first place time of 57.6. Ouellette of Jay was second and Livermore's Mark Wagner third.

Telstar entered Saturday's Nordic events with a five point lead as the jumpers took over the spotlight at Swan's Corner on the 30 meter hill. Doug Brooks of Telstar had jumps of 97 and 98 feet to lead the field and it was all Telstar in the next four spots. Freshman Scott Smith was second; Tom Stecher, third; Levi Brown, fourth; and Eric Dombkowski, fifth.

Livermore Falls displayed their cross country strength during the afternoon event when Mark Wagner covered the 5 1/2 kilometer course in 19:54. He was followed in by teammates Dan Simoneau and Jeff Meserve who were second and third respectively. Telstar took the next four spots with Jeff Fleet, Mike Dunn, Levi Brown, and Bruce Swan.

FEBRUARY IS SOLICITATION MONTH FOR WCCB

February is Channel 10 Auction solicitation month. Merchandise and services obtained by Auction "go-getters" will be auctioned off for the benefit of the non-profit, public television station. The fourth annual fund-raising auction, to be aired April 4-13th, will be built around a downeast nautical theme.

Thirty area go-getter teams throughout southern and central Maine are working to generate some $100,000 in auction revenue to provide a significant part of the station's operating budget.

Deborah Bates, producer-coordinator, pointed out that auction solicitations are almost totally in the hands of volunteer friends of Channel 10, many of whom participate in the live TV production as well.

"Channel 10 Auction is a community-minded activity which gives many people an opportunity to share in local public television," Ms. Bates emphasized, "auction is largely a cooperative effort of several thousand business and individual donors, and some 1,500 volunteers this year."

WCCB serves some 700,000 viewers in central and southern Maine with outstanding programming service. Award winning children's shows, local and national public affairs series, cultural stand-outs, and top-level sports specials are but a few of Channel 10's offerings. Approximately 20% of WCCB's annual operating budget is raised by this annual Auction event.

Telstar MVC Skiing

Champions for Third Year in Row

Telstar Regional High School skiers successfully defended their Mountain Valley Conference in Bethel this past week end. For the winners it was the third straight title in MVC competition.

Friday's Alpine events opened under excellent snow conditions at Mt. Abram and the Rebels Barry Carver skied the 35-gate Giant Slalom from the top of the Middle X Trail in 51.7 seconds to capture first place. Teammate Tom Stecher was second with Mark Ouellette of Jay High third.

Friday afternoon the competitors took two runs of slalom on separate courses with Telstar's Carver again setting the pace with two blistering runs of 29.3 and 28.3 seconds for a first place time of 57.6. Ouellette of Jay was second and Livermore's Mark Wagner third.

Telstar entered Saturday's Nordic events with a five point lead as the jumpers took over the spotlight at Swan's Corner on the 30 meter hill. Doug Brooks of Telstar had jumps of 97 and 98 feet to lead the field and it was all Telstar in the next four spots. Freshman Scott Smith was second; Tom Stecher, third; Levi Brown, fourth; and Eric Dombkowski, fifth.

Livermore Falls displayed their cross country strength during the afternoon event when Mark Wagner covered the 5 1/2 kilometer course in 19:54. He was followed in by teammates Dan Simoneau and Jeff Meserve who were second and third respectively. Telstar took the next four spots with Jeff Fleet, Mike Dunn, Levi Brown, and Bruce Swan.

On the Job With Emily

Week of Jan. 27 - Jan. 31

The first month of the 107th Legislative session came to a close this week in a last minute flurry of activity as Senators and Representatives met the January 31 deadline for the filing of bills to be considered in this session. The Legislative Research Office indicates that there will probably be in excess of 2,000 bills submitted. Among some of this past week's bills were proposals to create an office of ombudsman to act as a receiving point for all complaints from Maine citizens; to require mandatory imprisonment for persons who commit crimes while awaiting trial for previous charges; to increase the maximum weekly unemployment benefits; and to protect families with children and persons receiving assistance from discrimination in seeking rental housing.

Emily spent a good deal of time at the end of the week making the necessary preparations to file a bill which would exempt Historical Societies from the sales tax. This bill was requested by the Bethel Historical Society and the Maine League of Historical Societies.

On Jan. 28, Emily attended a hearing on a bill which would extend the term of office for sheriffs from the present two years to four years. Many spoke in favor of the measure, which was defeated in the 106th, arguing that such a change would promote continuity in the operations of the sheriff's department and reduce the time spent campaigning. Oxford County Sheriff Alton Howe attended the hearing. On Wednesday, the Human Resources Committee, of which Emily is a member, conducted an afternoon of hearings on two bills. The first would make some innovations and changes in the reporting of child abuse and neglect. The changes would allow Maine to qualify for certain Federal grants, and hopefully lead to significant improvements in reducing the instance of neglect and abuse in Maine. The second bill would make newly constructed and re-constructed buildings accessible to the physically handicapped, extending existing laws. The Committee on Barrier-Free Design of the Maine Rehabilitation Association presented very powerful testimony regarding the sense of rejection and isolation felt by the handicapped when confronting "barriers" (curbs, flights of stairs, narrow doorways, etc.) devised by architects and builders on behalf of society. The point was made that vocational training programs for the handicapped are of little value in promoting self-sufficiency when, once trained, the handicapped are prevented from entering and functioning in places of employment.

On Jan. 30, Common Cause of Maine held a photo session in the Senate Chambers, celebrating the filing of consumer-oriented legislation; on open meetings and disclosures to be required of lobbyists. Emily attended and ran into the Donald Eddys of Bethel, there for the occasion.

On Thursday, as well, Steve Saunders of Kents Hill, Emily's son, brought a group of Chilean students to the State House, where they were recognized in the balcony by Speaker John Martin.

During the week, Emily attended a luncheon with the other women legislators at the Blaine House, given by Mrs. Longley. The Governor made a brief appearance and told the ladies that he was in the midst of reviewing pardons with the Executive Council, commenting on how difficult it was to make this type of decision based only on paper and formal interviews, and that he would like to visit the prisons.

Those interested in the problems of energy should plan to attend the program given by Robert Monks at the Bethel Savings Bank on Feb. 9 at 7:30 p. m. This is an open meeting and Rep. Saunders wishes to stress that citizens from all the district towns are welcome to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis M. Davis went to Augusta with Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bryant, Fryer Pond. They all took dinner with June and Irving Cushman and spent the day gabbing. The Davis' made a short call at the Grange Home while passing by. The new home of the Cushman's is very lovely and comfortable. This was our first visit with them in this area and we enjoyed it immensely.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Davis called on Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Sturtevant in Auburn. On their return home they called on Mr. and Mrs. Herman Barnett in South Paris.

The skiers were out in full force Sunday. We met 123 cars between Paris Hill, turn and Andrews Corner, coming home about 4 o'clock. Everywhere we went we saw snowmobiles in groups enjoying snowmobiling. It was a beautiful day for groundhog day. Six weeks of winter coming up. We always have six weeks more of winter regardless, so why worry. I hope we have some sunny days in February.

Mrs. Hazel Johnson has returned to Mrs. Leon Verrill's for a two weeks stay. She came Friday, Jan. 31.

Donna Rainey has traded her trailer for a new one. It was exchanged this week end.

Mrs. Evelyn Koskela has a new trailer and has it placed on the lot beside Donna Rainey's, who is her daughter.

Carol Stowell is in Stephens Memorial Hospital with a back injury. We hope the Willing Workers and friends will send her cards.

Mr. and Mrs. Taisto Koskela have had a bout with bad colds.

Three members of the Snow Shoe Club from Lewiston-Auburn area struck out for Berlin, N. H., in the worst snowstorm of the season, Wednesday. They reached their first destination, Molly Ockett Motel at 8:45 p. m., where they stayed for the night. They moved on the next morning, destination—Gilead. However, the weather had cleared which made the traveling easier. They expected to be in Berlin Friday night for the snow shoe get-together in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Corruthers of South Lancaster, Mass., visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mason and family over the week end.

CHILDREN'S DENTAL HEALTH

This is the second in a series of articles on dental health published by the "Citizen", in cooperation with the Androscoggin Valley Dental Society concerning Children's Dental Health.

What is meant by the term "nursing bottle mouth?"

A baby's teeth can suffer real damage if he is regularly put to bed with a nursing bottle filled with sweetened fruit juice, formula, or other sugared beverage.

Bringing from a bottle at mealtime does not cause harm to the teeth but prolonged nap and nocturnal nursing can be very damaging to erupting teeth.

When a child nurses while awake, the liquid is swallowed so that the time it is in contact with the teeth is limited. But when he nurses in bed, the tongue and nipple pool the liquid around the upper front teeth and at the same time can protect the lower front teeth.

Certain bacteria change the sugar that is present in sweetened juices into decay causing acids. The longer the practice is continued, the more damage will be done.

Most of the teeth of a child with this condition are severely decayed. Because of the child's young age, it is usually extremely difficult, if not impossible, to restore the teeth.

To diagnose a problem of this nature, the dentist may request a complete history of the child's eating and nursing habits. But before starting any treatment, the dentist will have to point out to the parents the cause of the problem and take the child off the bottle or eliminate the sweets.

Leading dental scientists say that no child past the age of 10 months should take a bottle to bed. Such a bottle is not necessary nutritionally and instead serves as a harmful pacifier.
